The finest independent & world cinema

ROMA

6th June

Drama · 135 mins · Mexico · 2018

This multi-award-winning film sees acclaimed director Alfonso Cuarón drawing from his own childhood to tell the tale of Cleo, a housekeeper and nanny for a middle-class doctor, his wife and their four children in 1970's Mexico. She and her mistress each find themselves struggling to cope with an unexpected change of circumstance - their small-scale story set against the larger political events roiling the country

UNCLE BOONMEE WHO CAN RECALL HIS PAST LIVES

13th June

Fantasy Drama · 114 mins · Thailand · 2010

On a farm in the northern countryside of Thailand, a man dying of kidney failure surrounds himself with his loved ones, including the ghost of his dead wife and a non-human being that was once his son. Reflecting on the reasons for his illness, he embarks with his family on a final journey in this magical, beguilingly languorous meditation on reincarnation

THE ANGEL'S SHARE

20th June

Comedy Crime Drama · 101 mins · UK · 2012

This bittersweet comedy by Ken Loach follows a petty criminal who finds himself overwhelmed by the birth of his son and vows to give his child a better shot in life than he has had. After meeting three other ex-cons whose records are complicating their attempts to go straight, a visit to a whiskey distillery lays the groundwork for a potentially life-changing scam
