CUSTODY

5th September

Drama · 93 mins · France · 2017

Following the breakdown of his marriage, a seemingly upstanding man arranges to be transferred to the same town where his estranged wife and children live in order to fight for joint custody of his son. However, this apparently respectable and reasonable man hides a much darker side, one which his family are all too familiar with but which they were too scared to ever report to the authorities...a fact they may soon regret

DOGMAN

12th September

Crime Drama · 103 mins · Italy · 2018

A gentle, mild-mannered dog groomer who lives in a poor suburb makes some extra cash selling cocaine on the side while otherwise generally staying out of trouble, but things get more complex when he becomes trapped in a supposed 'friendship' with an unstable and violent former boxer who quickly proves to be a menace to the entire neighbourhood

THE GREAT BEAUTY

19th September

Drama · 141 mins · Italy · 2013

In the decades following the legendary success of his only novel, an author and journalist has embedded himself in the literary and social circles of Rome, as well as becoming a fixture in its nightlife. A shock from the past on his 65th birthday encourages him to start taking stock of his life, finally looking beyond the extravagant nightclubs and endless parties

MAZE

26th September

Crime Drama · 92 mins · UK · 2017

Based on the true story of what became one of the biggest prison escapes in Europe since WWII, this film follows the inmate in HMP Maze high-security prison in 1983 who masterminded the breakout and his gradual courting of a prison officer who was born on the opposite side of Northern Ireland's political divide but would prove crucial to the plan
