WHAT DO WE SHOW?

THURSDAYS: INDEPENDENT & WORLD CINEMA

Programmed by: Paul

Broaden your cultural palette with a smorgasbord of some of the most beautiful, thought-provoking, controversial and award-winning films from around the world. Our Thursday-night programme ranges from notable recent releases to hidden gems to classics by some of the biggest names in foreign cinema, plus a smattering of independent films.

Special selections are put on to celebrate events like Black History Month and LGBT+ History Month.

ALTERNATE SUNDAYS: BIG TED'S VIDEO VAULT

Programmed by: Gregg

Gregg takes you on a tour through some of his favourites with an eclectic selection of lo-fi cinema, including some forgotten classics, cult films and some older world cinema.

So, who was Big Ted? That's him on the right!

ALTERNATE SUNDAYS: CINEVANGELIST

Programmed by: Jude

Remember the fun of watching a film without any idea where it was going? Cinevangelist screens underappreciated gems: both indie and mainstream movies that didn't get much publicity, got buried by bigger releases or were horribly mismarketed. Basically, amazing films (that you've probably never heard of) that deserve a wider audience... and the titles stay secret so you get to enjoy all the jokes, surprises and twists completely unspoiled!

PEARL

Saturday 20th January, 8pm

Horror · 1 hr 43 mins · USA · 2022

In 1918 Texas, a young girl sick of life on an isolated farm with her ailing father and domineering mother decides to pursue the glamorous life she's seen in the movies, in this prequel to 'X'.

THURSDAYS 8PM

The finest independent & world cinema

TÁR

4th January

Drama · 2 hrs 38 mins · USA · 2023

Lydia Tár, the first female director of a major German orchestra, is lauded as one of the greatest living conductors. As she prepares for the live recording of a Mahler symphony, her immaculate facade begins to show cracks in this incisive look at just how corrosive power can be.

GUILLERMO DEL TORO'S PINOCCHIO

11th January

Animated Drama · 1 hr 57 mins · USA / Mexico · 2022

A grieving Italian woodcarver is able to mend his heart when his wooden puppet is magically brought to life. But the mischievous marionette careens into the world with little self-control, in this visually stunning adaptation that embraces the darkness of Carlo Collodi's classic tale.

THE BEASTS

18th January

Drama · 2 hrs 17 mins · Spain / France · 2022

A French couple leave their lives behind and move to rural Spain with a dream of living through farming and selling their produce at market. Unfortunately, only xenophobia and hostility await them within their new community, gradually escalating until full-scale conflict seems inevitable.

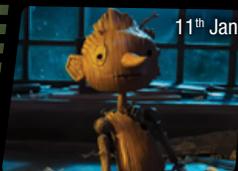

FLICKERING LIGHTS

25th January

Comedy Crime Drama · 1 hr 49 mins · Denmark · 2000

Four small-time criminals from Copenhagen make off with the small fortune they were ordered to steal and lie low in a wrecked house in Spain. Eventually, their supposedly temporary hideout becomes their new full-time home once they decide to set up their own restaurant.
